Clackamas County School Threat Assessment
Process

Two-Level System

The Student Threat Assessment Program is a two-level system that addresses threats of violence in Clackamas County Schools, provides services to youth making threats to others, and develops programming to prevent school violence. The program is a model developed by the Salem-Keizer School System, a national best practices program.

Plan

- Student Threat Assessment Coordinator (STAC) provides: consultation, technical assistance & training
- School District Coordinator organizes Level 1 teams

Train

- STAC trains Level 1 school teams
- Level 1 teams assess threats & plan for school safety

Implement

- STAC develops multidisciplinary Level 2 teams
- Level 2 Team provides recommendations

Level 1

Admin
Case Manager

Counselor/Psychologist
Mental Health Support

SRO/Law Enforcement
Safety Coordinator

Teacher/Staff
Student Support

Level 2

District Coordinator

H3S
Mental Health Services

Law Enforcement
Safety

Juvenile Dept.
Parole & Probation

ESD
Educational Services

DHS
Child Welfare

Nonprofit
Youth & Family Services

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Implement in all 10 school districts

All schools have Level 1 protocols

Multidisciplinary Level 2 teams

Provide training & technical assistance

Develop prevention programming